run during a two-hour soft launch here yesterday.

Sarawak Children's Cancer Society (SCCS) president Jocelyn Hee said the promotion is to encourage families and friends to join the event in groups, adding she was overwhelmed by the response for the event, especially from the young.

"On behalf of SCCS, I would like to express my happiness and pride at seeing so many participants who waited patiently to sign up and pledge support to the meaningful cause.

"Even more so, to see some of our cancer survivors and families of children with cancer who are joining us today," said Hee who, together

The medal, which will be presented to all participants who complete the run, bears the shape of a gold ribbon – the international symbol of childhood cancer awareness.

With this, SCCS hopes to plant the seed of contribution in the young people of Sarawak and at the same time enable them to enjoy a healthy activity together, added Hee.

She said SCCS is expecting some 8,000 participants to take part in the run which will be held in Kuching, Sibul and Miri.

This year's Colour Rush is scheduled in September in conjunction with Childhood Cancer Awareness Month.

Hee said to allow more to partake in the event, an early-bird registration fee of RM38 will be available from now until July 22, while the normal fee starts from July 23 to Sept 12.

As SCCS has decided to sell its runner's T-shirt separately as optional merchandise. All Colour Rush participants with a registration slip will be able to purchase the T-shirt at a special price of only RM25 from August onwards.

For more information on the charity run, contact SCCS on 082-686276 or email colourrush@scs.org.my. Alternatively, visit www.colourrushrun.com or its Facebook page at www.facebook.com/colourrushrun.
