SIBU: The Sarawak Children's Cancer Society's (SCCS) is organising a Colour Rush fun run to raise awareness of childhood cancer in the state.

SCCS committee member Pau Kiew Chuan said the event would take place on Sept 30 at Sibu Town Square.

"Our purpose of having the event is also to raise funds to support children cancer patients and their families," he said, adding that they were targeting between 1,500 and 1,700 participants.

Registration is open from now until Sept 12.

Registration forms can be obtained at all Lea Sports Centre and Lea Centre outlets here, at SCCS weekend roadshows at Star Mega Mall from 12pm to 8pm every Saturday and Sunday, or online at www.colourrushrun.com

"Early bird registration fee is only RM38 until July 22, the fee will be RM45 after that," he said.
